Atlantic Electropoise: Gentlemen—For the past five years my wife has been a sufferer from dyspenia. So completely did the disease make a wrock of her former self that life was almost despaired of. Her nervous system was almost entirely destroyed, and the slightest noise would throw her into a nervous spasm, which would last for hours. Medical skill failed to bring any refor hours. Medical shill failed to bring any relief.

Through the recommendation of an eminent divine we were induced to try the Electropoise.
After a persistent use of the instrument, the effect has been wenderful. Her nervous system has been restored to its almost normal condition; her digestion is wenderfully improved; she is rapidly gaining in fish; and, upon the whole, is making a rapid recovery, which speaks volumes for the wonderful carative newers of the Electropoise, as her case was considered hopeless. If any are skeptical on the subject, let them try the Electropoise, and its wonderful powers will quickly dispoise and its wonderful powers will quickly dispoise and doubt. Yours truly, W. M. PROPST.

Deaf, Dumb, and Disguised.

Among the second-class passengers on the Cunarder Umbria, which arrived in New York on Saturday, were Mrs. Christina Simeon, of Trinidad, and her two sons, aged 22 and 104 years, respectively. The elder of the two, Smith Nicholas S meon, is deaf and dumb. The family took two rooms at the Morgan House and retired. When Mrs. Simeon went to her sone' room about an hour later Smith Nicholas was not there. His brother said that he had put on a suit of Chinese clothes and gone out. He cannot read or write, or in any way make himself understood in English or Chinese, and Wednesday Mrs. Simeon asked the police to help in the search for him.

Mrs. Simeon is the widow of a rich Trinidal merchant. About two years ago she, with her husband and two sons, went to China. The deaf and dumb boy evinced a marked preference for Chiramen. He had his head shaved with the exception of a small tuft on the crown. Mr. Simeon died in China, and Mrs. Simeon decided to return to her home in Trinidad. They sailed from Hong Koug for Liverpool. In Liverpool the boy ran away and was found in the Coincese quarter of that city.

While Mrs. Simeon was reporting his absence at police headquarters the deat mute appeared at the pier of the Conard steam. ship line dressed in his O lental garb. He said by signs that he wanted to go back to China. He was sent to the hotel, and was there when his mother arrived.

The boy insisted on staying with the Chinese in New York and a cabman took him to his Chinese quarters. His mather will keep a constant watch over him there, and hopes to have him sent to an institution for the deaf and dumb. Then she will go to her home in Trinidad.

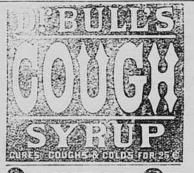

WILDCATS NO MATCH FOR THREE BOYS. -The Gliroy poultry yard at Maplewood, N. Y., having recently been thinned out by the visits of a thief of some kind Mack Gilroy, aged 14, his brother Tom, sged 12 and their brother Will, aged 10, lay low the other day to see if they could discover who or what the maurauder was. They discovered the thief to be a big wildest, which came boidly into the yard while they were watching, eelzed a chicken and made off with i. The boys followed it to the woods, armed only with a heavy club, which Mack carried. They came upon the wildcat half a mile in the woods, and it ran up a small tree and crouched on a limb. The boys ad-vanced fearlessly, and were discussing how to best attack the despoiler of their poultry flock, when the wildcat itself assumed the offensive and sprang from the tree straight for Mack, who was the nearest. The boy was qual to the emergency, and mat the farcious animal with a blow from his club while the cat was still in the air. The blow stretched the wildcat stunned on the g The instant it fell the boys, Tom and Will, jumped on it and stamped the life out of it. They carried the carcass home in triumph. to the surprise and pride of their parente, who were not aware that the boys had foliowed the dangerous beast. Twelve wildcats have been killed in that part of Sullivan county since Christmas, but this one was the biggest one of the lot. Its claws were over an inch in length. LYNCHED .- Information bas been received of a lynching in Pittsylvania county. George Towler, a negro youth, lived with D. W. Mitchell, a well-known farmer, and slept in the bouse. On Sunday night he entered the room of Mitchell's little daugh ter. Mrs. Mitchell heard a noise and en-tered the room and caught the negro in the tered the room and caught the negro in the act. Mitchell rushed in and caught Towler, tied bim and sent for a justice, who arrived Monday morning. J. U. and D. L. Mitchell, brothers of the little girl, arrived in the afternoon, and, accompanied by Dock Haymore, took Towler from the officers, left him to the woods and swung him to a tree. The body was found the next morning. A jury of inquest was held, and rendered a verd of that the deceased met his death at the hands of the three men named. The Mitchell boys and Haymore were arrested yesterday. Great excitement prevails in the neighborhood, and serious trouble be-tween the whites and blacks is feared.

DISCLOSED BY A DREAM .- Some weeks ago Mr. Isaac Robinson, a wealthy citizen of Petersburg, Va., died very suddenly, leaving an estate valued st over $150,000. He left several chillrens among whom was Mrs Jacob Dryfcos, of Ralfordible State, and Mr. Jacob Isaac Robinson, of Petersburg. Recently, for three consecutive nights, Mrs. Dryfcos dreamed that her father had buried on a los on Old street, in that city, a jar containing a large sum of money in gold. Mrs. Dryfcos told her husband of her dreams, and the two became her husband of her dreams, and the two became so impressed that Mr. Dryfoss went to Petersburg last Monday, and, in comeany with his brother-in-law, Mr. Robinson, of that place, made search for the supposed hidden treasure. After a good deal of digging, no trace of the gold could be fount. Wednesday night Mr. Robinson resumed the search, and was rewarded by finding the jar of gold. According to Mr. Robinson's statement, there was a very large am unt of money in the jar, but he declines to say how much. Yesterday he says that he forwarded half of the money to his sister, Mrs. Dryfoos, and kept the other half himself.
